

AC The Observer

Observers watch what is happening around them and see how all the pieces fit together to set us on a path toward the future. People with this future personality type believe that we can notice what will happen if we just pay attention. They believe their role is to watch out for the future but not necessarily to change it.

Observers can often see what is happening around them better than others and are willing to go with the flow.

AD The Navigator

Navigators know where the ship is headed, but they also know that we each have to take individual actions to make sure the trip goes smoothly. People with this future personality type believe that we are on track toward a certain future, and that our decisions and actions help determine exactly how we get there.

Navigators are often confident and decisive and want to limit the amount of uncertainty in a situation.

BC The Explorer

Explorers see a wide range of possibilities and are willing to go with any that come along. People with this future personality type believe that the future is not yet determined but that it will unfold on its own; our individual actions don't have much influence on how it turns out.

Explorers are often dreamers and can see the best in many types of situations.

BD The Mapmaker

Mapmakers have the entire ocean in front of them and make decisions that will determine where the ship ends up. People with this future personality type believe that the future is wide open with possibilities, and that our future decisions and actions determine how the future turns out.

Mapmakers are often imaginative, optimistic, strong leaders, and ready to take charge.
